

Novena in Honour of Blessed Columba Marmion

Prayer

God our Father in heaven, I bless you with all my heart, for having given me my life, and for making me today so fulfilled and grateful, for having the support of a family, of friends and of a world where Jesus, along with You, Father, and the Holy Spirit, announce to all people the Good News of salvation.

Confident of having become, by my Baptism, your adopted child, and a member of the Communion of Saints, and moved by my devotion to Blessed Columba Marmion, I ask You, Father, to intercede on behalf of Listen also to his/her prayer, that while undergoing trials and hardships, he/she may discover a new life in the Paschal Mystery, which has the power to change and transfigure him/her. So that at the end of time, Your reign of harmony and peace may triumph over every evil, and Your divine Will be done on earth as in heaven.

Through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Commitment
